   relevant tobacco law means a law, or a provision of a law, that regulates the retail packaging or appearance of tobacco products.
Part 2—Simplified outlines

12 Simplified outline for this Act

The following is a simplified outline of this Act:

- This Act regulates the retail packaging and appearance of tobacco products in order to:

  (a) improve public health; and

  (b) give effect to certain obligations in the Convention on Tobacco Control.

- Part 2 of Chapter 2 specifies requirements for the retail packaging and appearance of tobacco products. (If there is an acquisition of property otherwise than on just terms, regulations made under section 15 might also specify requirements.)

- The retail packaging and appearance of tobacco products must comply with the requirements of this Act.

- Offences and civil penalties apply if tobacco products are supplied, purchased or manufactured and either the retail packaging, or the products themselves, do not comply with the requirements.

13 Simplified outline for this Chapter

The following is a simplified outline of this Chapter:

- Part 1 of this Chapter contains definitions and general rules about the operation of this Act.
Part 3 of this Chapter contains provisions relating to the constitutional basis of this Act.

This Act relies on the external affairs power of the Constitution by implementing certain obligations in the Convention on Tobacco Control. However, if this Act is not supported by that power, then this Act will apply in more limited circumstances by relying on the corporations power, the trade and commerce power and the Territories power.

This Act does not apply to the extent that its operation would infringe certain constitutional protections (such as by acquiring property otherwise than on just terms).
Section 14

Part 3—Constitutional provisions

14 Additional operation of this Act

(1) Without prejudice to its effect apart from this section, this Act also has effect as provided by this section.

Corporations power

(2) Part 2 of Chapter 3 has, by force of this subsection, the effect it would have if its operation were, by express provision, confined to a person that is a constitutional corporation.

Note: Part 2 of Chapter 3 contains general offences and civil penalty provisions for non-compliant retail packaging and tobacco products.

Trade and commerce power

(3) Part 2 of Chapter 3 has, by force of this subsection, the effect it would have if its operation were, by express provision, confined to a person engaging in conduct to the extent to which the conduct takes place in the course of, or in relation to, constitutional trade or commerce.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to the extent (if any) that its application would infringe section 92 of the Constitution.

Note: Section 92 of the Constitution requires trade among the States to be absolutely free.

Territories power

(5) Part 2 of Chapter 3 has, by force of this subsection, the effect it would have if its operation were, by express provision, confined to a person engaging in conduct to the extent to which the conduct takes place wholly or partly in a Territory.
15 Acquisition of property

(1) This Act does not apply to the extent (if any) that its operation would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms.

(2) In particular, if, apart from this section, this Act would result in such an acquisition of property because it would prevent the use of a trade mark or other sign on or in relation to the retail packaging of tobacco products, or on tobacco products, then despite any other provision of this Act, the trade mark or sign may be used on or in relation to the retail packaging of tobacco products, or on tobacco products, subject to any requirements that may be prescribed in the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Note: Offences and civil penalties apply to the supply, purchase and manufacture etc. of tobacco products that do not comply with any requirements specified in the regulations (see Chapter 3).

(3) To avoid doubt, any tobacco product requirement (within the meaning of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of tobacco product requirement) that does not result in such an acquisition of property continues to apply in relation to: (a) the retail packaging of tobacco products; and (b) the appearance of tobacco products.

28 Effect on the Trade Marks Act 1995 of non-use of trade mark as a result of this Act

(1) For the purposes of the Trade Marks Act 1995, and regulations made under that Act, an applicant for the registration of a trade mark in respect of tobacco products is taken to intend to:

if the applicant would intend to do so but for the operation of this Act.

(2) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of paragraph 42(b) of the Trade Marks Act 1995, this Act does not have the effect that the use of a trade mark in relation to tobacco products would be contrary to law.

(3) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of sections 38 and 84A of the Trade Marks Act 1995, and regulations 17A.27 and 17A.42A of the Trade Marks Regulations 1995:

(a) the operation of this Act; or

(c) not to register the trade mark; or

(d) to revoke the acceptance of an application for registration of the trade mark; or

(e) to register the trade mark subject to conditions or limitations; or

(f) to revoke the registration of the trade mark.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph 100(1)(c) of the Trade Marks Act 1995, an opponent is taken to have rebutted an allegation if the opponent establishes that the registered owner would have used the trade mark in Australia on or in relation to the retail packaging of tobacco products, or on tobacco products, but for the operation of this Act.

Trade Marks regulations applying provisions of Trade Marks Act

(5) Subsections (1) to (4) also apply in relation to regulations made under the Trade Marks Act 1995 that:

(a) apply provisions of the Trade Marks Act 1995 that are affected by this section, including where the regulations apply those provisions in modified form; and

(b) provide in similar terms to provisions of the Trade Marks Act 1995 that are affected by this section.
Section 29

29 Effect on the Designs Act 2003 of failure to make products as a result of this Act

A failure to make a product that embodies a registered design merely as a result of complying with the requirements of this Act does not provide the basis for making an order:

(a) under section 90 of the Designs Act 2003, requiring the grant of a licence in relation to the design; nor
(b) under section 92 of that Act, revoking the registration of the design.

(ii) if the warrant was signed under section 76 (telephone warrants)—make a copy of the form of warrant completed under subsection 76(6) available to the occupier or other person; and

68  Tobacco Plain Packaging Act 2011  No. 148, 2011
(b) inform the occupier or other person of the rights and responsibilities of the occupier or other person under Division 4.

63 Completing execution of warrant after temporary cessation

(1) This section applies if an authorised officer, and all persons assisting, who are executing a warrant in relation to premises temporarily cease its execution and leave the premises.

(2) The authorised officer, and persons assisting, may complete the execution of the warrant if:
   (a) the warrant is still in force; and
   (b) the officers and persons assisting are absent from the premises:
      (i) for not more than 1 hour; or
      (ii) if there is an emergency situation, for not more than 12 hours or such longer period as allowed by an issuing officer under subsection (5); or
      (iii) for a longer period if the occupier of the premises consents in writing.

Application for extension in emergency situation

(3) An authorised officer, or person assisting, may apply to an issuing officer for an extension of the 12-hour period mentioned in subparagraph (2)(b)(ii) if:
   (a) there is an emergency situation; and
   (b) the officer or person assisting believes on reasonable grounds that the officer and the persons assisting will not be able to return to the premises within that period.

(4) If it is practicable to do so, before making the application, the authorised officer or person assisting must give notice to the occupier of the premises of his or her intention to apply for an extension.
Extension in emergency situation

(5) An issuing officer may extend the period during which the authorised officer and persons assisting may be away from the premises if:
(a) an application is made under subsection (3); and
(b) the issuing officer is satisfied, by information on oath or affirmation, that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the extension; and
(c) the extension would not result in the period ending after the warrant ceases to be in force.

64 Completing execution of warrant stopped by court order

An authorised officer, and any persons assisting, may complete the execution of a warrant that has been stopped by an order of a court if:
(a) the order is later revoked or reversed on appeal; and
(b) the warrant is still in force when the order is revoked or reversed.

65 Expert assistance to operate electronic equipment

(1) This section applies to premises to which a warrant relates.

Securing equipment

(2) An authorised officer may do whatever is necessary to secure any electronic equipment that is on premises if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that:
(a) there is on the premises evidential material of the kind specified in the warrant; and
(b) that evidential material may be accessible by operating the equipment; and
(c) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and
(d) the evidential material may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with, if the authorised officer does not take action under this subsection.
The equipment may be secured by locking it up, placing a guard or any other means.

(3) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of:
   (a) his or her intention to secure the equipment; and
   (b) the fact that the equipment may be secured for up to 24 hours.

Period equipment may be secured

(4) The equipment may be secured until the earlier of the following happens:
   (a) the 24-hour period ends;
   (b) the equipment has been operated by the expert.

Note: For compensation for damage to electronic equipment, see section 66.

Extensions

(5) The authorised officer may apply to an issuing officer for an extension of the 24-hour period if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the equipment needs to be secured for more than that period.

(6) Before making the application, the authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to apply for an extension. The occupier or other person is entitled to be heard in relation to that application.

(7) The provisions of this Part relating to the issue of warrants apply, with such modifications as are necessary, to the issue of an extension.

(8) The 24-hour period may be extended more than once.

66 Compensation for damage to electronic equipment

(1) This section applies if:
(a) as a result of electronic equipment being operated as mentioned in this Part:
   (i) damage is caused to the equipment; or
   (ii) the data recorded on the equipment is damaged; or
   (iii) programs associated with the use of the equipment, or with the use of the data, are damaged or corrupted; and
(b) the damage or corruption occurs because:
   (i) insufficient care was exercised in selecting the person who was to operate the equipment; or
   (ii) insufficient care was exercised by the person operating the equipment.

(2) The Commonwealth must pay the owner of the equipment, or the user of the data or programs, such reasonable compensation for the damage or corruption as the Commonwealth and the owner or user agree on.

(3) However, if the owner or user and the Commonwealth fail to agree, the owner or user may institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.

(4) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises, or the occupier’s employees or agents, if they were available at the time, provided any appropriate warning or guidance on the operation of the equipment.
Division 4—Occupier’s rights and responsibilities

67 Occupier entitled to observe execution of warrant

(1) The occupier, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, is entitled to observe the execution of a warrant if the occupier or other person is present at the premises while the warrant is being executed.

(2) The right to observe the execution of the warrant ceases if the occupier or other person impedes that execution.

(3) This section does not prevent the execution of the warrant in 2 or more areas of the premises at the same time.

68 Occupier to provide authorised officer with facilities and assistance

(1) The occupier of premises to which a warrant relates, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, must provide:

(a) an authorised officer executing the warrant; and
(b) any person assisting the authorised officer;

with all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective exercise of their powers, and the effective performance of their functions and duties.

Offence

(2) A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person is subject to subsection (1); and
(b) the person fails to comply with that subsection.

Penalty for contravention of this subsection: 30 penalty units.
Division 5—General provisions relating to seizure

69 Copies of seized things to be provided

(1) This section applies if:
   (a) a warrant is being executed in relation to premises; and
   (b) an authorised officer seizes one or more of the following from the premises under this Part:
      (i) a document, film, computer file or other thing that can be readily copied;
      (ii) a storage device, the information in which can be readily copied.

(2) The occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier and who is present when the warrant is executed, may request the authorised officer to give a copy of the thing or the information to the occupier or other person.

(3) The authorised officer must comply with such a request as soon as practicable after the seizure.

(4) However, the authorised officer is not required to comply with such a request if possession of the document, film, computer file, thing or information by the occupier or other person could constitute an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

70 Receipts for seized things

(1) An authorised officer must provide a receipt for a thing that is seized under this Part.

(2) One receipt may cover 2 or more things that are seized.

71 Return of seized things

(1) The Secretary must take reasonable steps to return a thing seized under this Part when the earliest of the following happens:
   (a) the reason for the thing’s seizure no longer exists;
(b) it is decided that the thing is not to be used in evidence;
(c) the period of 60 days after the thing’s seizure ends.

Note: See subsections (2) and (3) for exceptions to this rule.

Exceptions

(2) Subsection (1):
(a) is subject to any contrary order of a court; and
(b) does not apply if the thing:
   (i) is forfeited or forfeitable to the Commonwealth; or
   (ii) is the subject of a dispute as to ownership.

(3) The Secretary is not required to take reasonable steps to return a thing because of paragraph (1)(c) if:
(a) proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence were instituted before the end of the 60 days and have not been completed (including an appeal to a court in relation to those proceedings); or
(b) the thing may continue to be retained because of an order under section 72; or
(c) the Commonwealth, the Secretary or an authorised officer is otherwise authorised (by a law, or an order of a court, of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory) to retain, destroy, dispose of or otherwise deal with the thing.

Return of thing

(4) A thing that is required to be returned under this section must be returned to the person from whom it was seized (or to the owner if that person is not entitled to possess it).

72 Issuing officer may permit a seized thing to be retained

Application to retain seized thing

(1) The Secretary may apply to an issuing officer for an order permitting the retention of a thing seized under this Part for a further period if proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence have not commenced before the end of:
(a) 60 days after the seizure; or
(b) a period previously specified in an order of an issuing officer under this section.

(2) Before making the application, the Secretary must:
(a) take reasonable steps to discover who has an interest in the retention of the thing; and
(b) if it is practicable to do so, notify each person whom the Secretary believes to have such an interest of the proposed application.

Order to retain seized thing

(3) The issuing officer may order that the thing may continue to be retained for a period specified in the order if the issuing officer is satisfied that it is necessary for the thing to continue to be retained:
(a) for the purposes of investigating whether:
   (i) an offence has been committed against this Act, or the Crimes Act 1914 or the Criminal Code to the extent that it relates to this Act; or
   (ii) a civil penalty provision in this Act has been contravened; or
(b) to enable evidence of such an offence or contravention to be secured for the purposes of a prosecution or action.

(4) The period specified must not exceed 3 years.

73 Disposal of seized things

(1) The Secretary may dispose of a thing seized under this Part if:
(a) the Secretary has taken reasonable steps to return the thing to a person; and
(b) either:
   (i) the Secretary has been unable to locate the person; or
   (ii) the person has refused to take possession of the thing.

(2) The Secretary may dispose of the thing in any manner that he or she thinks appropriate.
74 Compensation for acquisition of property

(1) If the operation of section 73 would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.

(2) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.
Chapter 4  Powers to investigate contraventions of this Act
Part 2  Search warrants
Division 6  Issue of warrants

Section 75

Division 6—Issue of warrants

75  Issue of warrants

Application for warrant

(1) An authorised officer may apply to an issuing officer for a warrant under this section in relation to premises.

Issue of warrant

(2) The issuing officer may issue the warrant if the issuing officer is satisfied, by information on oath or affirmation, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, or there may be within the next 72 hours, evidential material on the premises.

(3) However, the issuing officer must not issue the warrant unless the authorised officer or some other person has given to the issuing officer, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the issuing officer requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

Content of warrant

(4) The warrant must:

(a) state the offence or offences, or civil penalty provision or civil penalty provisions, to which the warrant relates; and
(b) describe the premises to which the warrant relates; and
(c) state that the warrant is issued under this Division; and
(d) specify the kind of evidential material that is to be searched for under the warrant; and
(e) state that the evidential material specified, and any other evidential material found in the course of executing the warrant, may be seized under the warrant; and
(f) name one or more authorised officers; and
(g) authorise the authorised officers named in the warrant:

(i) to enter the premises; and
(ii) to exercise the powers set out in this Part in relation to the premises; and

(h) state whether entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or during specified hours of the day; and

(i) specify the day (not more than 1 week after the issue of the warrant) on which the warrant ceases to be in force.

76 Warrants by telephone, fax etc.

Application for warrant

(1) An authorised officer may apply to an issuing officer by telephone, fax or other electronic means for a warrant under section 75 in relation to premises:

(a) in an urgent case; or

(b) if the delay that would occur if an application were made in person would frustrate the effective execution of the warrant.

(2) The issuing officer may require communication by voice to the extent that it is practicable in the circumstances.

(3) Before applying for the warrant, the authorised officer must prepare an information of the kind mentioned in subsection 75(2) in relation to the premises that sets out the grounds on which the warrant is sought. If it is necessary to do so, the authorised officer may apply for the warrant before the information is sworn or affirmed.

Issuing officer may complete and sign warrant

(4) The issuing officer may complete and sign the same warrant that would have been issued under section 75 if the issuing officer is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so:

(a) after considering the terms of the information; and

(b) after receiving such further information (if any) as the issuing officer requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.
Section 77

(5) After completing and signing the warrant, the issuing officer must inform the authorised officer, by telephone, fax or other electronic means, of:

(a) the terms of the warrant; and
(b) the day on which, and the time at which, the warrant was signed.

Obligations on authorised officer

(6) The authorised officer must then do the following:

(a) complete a form of warrant in the same terms as the warrant completed and signed by the issuing officer;
(b) state on the form the following:
   (i) the name of the issuing officer;
   (ii) the day on which, and the time at which, the warrant was signed;
(c) send the following to the issuing officer:
   (i) the form of warrant completed by the authorised officer;
   (ii) the information referred to in subsection (3), which must have been duly sworn or affirmed.

(7) The authorised officer must comply with paragraph (6)(c) by the end of the day after the earlier of the following:

(a) the day on which the warrant ceases to be in force;
(b) the day on which the warrant is executed.

Issuing officer to attach documents together

(8) The issuing officer must attach the documents provided under paragraph (6)(c) to the warrant signed by the issuing officer.

77 Authority of warrant

(1) A form of warrant duly completed under subsection 76(6) is authority for the same powers as are authorised by the warrant signed by the issuing officer under subsection 76(4).
(2) In any proceedings, a court is to assume (unless the contrary is proved) that an exercise of power was not authorised by a warrant under section 76 if:

(a) it is material, in those proceedings, for the court to be satisfied that the exercise of power was authorised by that section; and

(b) the warrant signed by the issuing officer authorising the exercise of the power is not produced in evidence.

78 Offence relating to warrants by telephone, fax etc.

An authorised officer must not:

(a) state in a document that purports to be a form of warrant under section 76 the name of an issuing officer unless that issuing officer signed the warrant; or

(b) state on a form of warrant under that section a matter that, to the authorised officer’s knowledge, departs in a material particular from the terms of the warrant signed by the issuing officer under that section; or

(c) purport to execute, or present to another person, a document that purports to be a form of warrant under that section that the authorised officer knows departs in a material particular from the terms of a warrant signed by an issuing officer under that section; or

(d) give to an issuing officer a form of warrant under that section that is not the form of warrant that the authorised officer purported to execute.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

   (b) within 14 days of so ceasing, the person does not return the person’s identity card to the Secretary.

Penalty: 1 penalty unit.

(5) Subsection (4) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For offences of strict liability, see subsection 6.1(1) of the Criminal Code.

Exception—card lost or destroyed

(6) Subsection (4) does not apply if the identity card was lost or destroyed.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in this

83 Self-incrimination

(1) A person is not excused from giving information, producing a

Chapter 5—Enforcing compliance with this Act

Part 1—Simplified outline

84 Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Chapter:

- Civil penalty orders may be sought under Part 2 of this Chapter from the Federal Court in relation to contraventions of civil penalty provisions.

- Part 2 also contains some rules of general application in relation to civil penalty provisions.

- Alternatively, a person can be given an infringement notice under Part 3 of this Chapter in relation to a contravention of an offence of strict liability.

- A person who is given an infringement notice can choose to pay an amount as an alternative to having court proceedings brought against the person for a contravention of an offence or civil penalty provision. If the person does not choose to pay the amount, proceedings can be brought against the person in relation to the contravention.
Part 2—Civil penalty provisions

Division 1—Obtaining a civil penalty order

85 Civil penalty orders

Application for order

(1) The Secretary may apply to the Federal Court for an order that a person, who is alleged to have contravened a civil penalty provision, pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty.

(2) The Secretary must make the application within 6 years of the alleged contravention.

Court may order person to pay pecuniary penalty

(3) If the Federal Court is satisfied that the person has contravened the civil penalty provision, the court may order the person to pay to the Commonwealth such pecuniary penalty for the contravention as the court determines to be appropriate.

Note: Subsection (5) sets out the maximum penalty that the court may order the person to pay.

(4) An order under subsection (3) is a civil penalty order.

Determining pecuniary penalty

(5) The pecuniary penalty must not be more than:

(a) if the person is a body corporate—5 times the amount of the pecuniary penalty specified for the civil penalty provision; and

(b) otherwise—the amount of the pecuniary penalty specified for the civil penalty provision.

(6) In determining the pecuniary penalty, the court may take into account all relevant matters, including:

(a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
Chapter 5  Enforcing compliance with this Act
Part 2  Civil penalty provisions
Division 1  Obtaining a civil penalty order

Section 86

(b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered because of the contravention; and
(c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and
(d) whether the person has previously been found by a court in proceedings under one or more of the following to have engaged in any similar conduct:
   (i) this Act;
   (ii) the Crimes Act 1914 or the Criminal Code in relation to this Act.

86 Civil enforcement of penalty

(1) A pecuniary penalty is a debt payable to the Commonwealth.

(2) The Commonwealth may enforce a civil penalty order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgement debt.

87 Conduct contravening more than one civil penalty provision

(1) If conduct constitutes a contravention of 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this Part against a person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of those provisions.

(2) However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this Part in relation to the same conduct.

88 Multiple contraventions

(1) The Federal Court may make a single civil penalty order against a person for multiple contraventions of a civil penalty provision if proceedings for the contraventions are founded on the same facts, or if the contraventions form, or are part of, a series of contraventions of the same or a similar character.

(2) However, the penalty must not exceed the sum of the maximum penalties that could be ordered if a separate penalty were ordered for each of the contraventions.
Section 89

89 Proceedings may be heard together

The Federal Court may direct that 2 or more proceedings for civil penalty orders are to be heard together.

90 Civil evidence and procedure rules for civil penalty orders

The Federal Court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a civil penalty order.

91 Contravening a civil penalty provision is not an offence

A contravention of a civil penalty provision is not an offence.
Division 2—Civil proceedings and criminal proceedings

92 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The Federal Court may not make a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct constituting the contravention.

93 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

(1) Proceedings for a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if:
   (a) criminal proceedings are commenced or have already been commenced against the person for an offence; and
   (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) The proceedings for the order (the civil proceedings) may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the civil proceedings are dismissed.

94 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be commenced against a person for conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as conduct that would constitute a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person in relation to the contravention.

95 Evidence given in civil proceedings not admissible in criminal proceedings

(1) Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:
(a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a civil penalty order against the individual for an alleged contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and
(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to criminal proceedings in relation to the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the civil penalty order.
Chapter 5  Enforcing compliance with this Act
Part 2  Civil penalty provisions
Division 3  Miscellaneous

Section 96

Division 3—Miscellaneous

96 Ancillary contravention of civil penalty provisions

(1) A person must not:
   (a) attempt to contravene a civil penalty provision; or
   (b) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (c) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (d) be in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
   (e) conspire with others to effect a contravention of a civil penalty provision.

Note: Section 98 (which provides that a person’s state of mind does not need to be proven in relation to a civil penalty provision) does not apply to this subsection.

Civil penalty

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the provision.

97 Mistake of fact

(1) A person is not liable to have a civil penalty order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:
   (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:
      (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and
      (ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
   (b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
Section 98

(a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and

(b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

(3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (1) or (2) in proceedings for a civil penalty order bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.

98 State of mind

(1) In proceedings for a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (other than subsection 96(1)), it is not necessary to prove:

(a) the person’s intention; or

(b) the person’s knowledge; or

(c) the person’s recklessness; or

(d) the person’s negligence; or

(e) any other state of mind of the person.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not affect the operation of section 97 (mistake of fact).

99 Civil penalty provisions contravened by employees, agents or officers

If an element of a civil penalty provision is done by an employee, agent or officer of a body corporate acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, the element must also be attributed to the body corporate.

Part 3 Infringement notices

Section 100

Part 3—Infringement notices

100 When an infringement notice may be given

(1) If an authorised officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has contravened an offence of strict liability in Chapter 3, the authorised officer may give to the person an infringement notice for the alleged contravention.
